

What is Payment On Hold?

Sometime the customer's payment will be put on hold. This means that even though the payment is successful from the customer's end, due to some security reasons it is temporarily put on hold on noon's system until successfully verified.