

Payment Failures & Declines

Blocked Cards

If your payment card appears to be blocked, it may be due to a restriction placed by your issuing bank. noon does not have control over card blocks, so you'll need to contact your bank directly to resolve the issue.

Payment Denied

- Card payments may be denied for several reasons. Debit card payments often fail due to insufficient funds. Credit card failures may occur if there are outstanding dues or an insufficient credit limit.
- If a payment continues to fail, please contact your issuing bank for more information.